“ I have known Mrs. Birberick my entire life. My fondest memories are of Lake Michigan and she was integral to those adventures. Either sharing her home when I was a child, or giving me the opportunity to share her home with my own children. She was a wonderful, loving, exuberant presence and she will be sorely missed.

“ I am devastated to hear about Barbara passing away. I can't imagine not being able to pick up the phone to call her. We first met Barbara and Al through Mary and John Messingschlager. Mary and I grew up together and encouraged us to start going to Lake Michigan when our children were babies. Even though Barbara never rented their home on Lake Michigan she took a chance with us and we either rented their place or one of the other places she would find for us right there on Driftwood Beach, at the same time Mary and family were up there. Barbara wanted to be up there with all of us at the same time to join in the fun.

So for over 50 years, Barbara has been my friend, too, and each of our daughters have rented her summer home in the last several years. They have such great memories of Lake Michigan and Mrs. "B". Our daughter, Laura, lives in Houston now, but she and her family have a house just a couple of miles down the beach from Barbara's place for all of us to enjoy.

Barbara helped me with decorating and sewed many things for us. Her work was so professional, but it also had heart and soul sewed in to everything she made.

In our English Tudor home Barbara was going to make the valances for 8 windows in our dining room. When she decided the job was too monumental she was so conscientious she hunted down a shop that could make them for us so we weren't disappointed. She could be always counted on to do what she promised. There are many dear memories but that one is my fondest. I am so glad she was in my life and I am so proud and pleased to have known her and her family. I know Barbara had great Christian faith and I am happy she is with her beloved Al in heaven. Mary and Barbara can go running into the lake and hit those fabulous waves just like we all used to do. God bless you; I am really going to miss you.

“ You were a friend for fifty years. You taught me so much. You were my second mom. Wish I would have been here. So glad and thankful your friend Susan took care of your needs during the pandemic. My maid of honor. My friend. Your great grandchildren are adorable. We had so much fun with you. You will never be forgotten. John was looking forward to more projects for you this year.
Love you so much.

“ Barb you were my other mother. We have been friends for fifty years. We raised our kids together. You taught me so many things. Sewing and decorating. You were very special. I only wish I could have been here to help you out during the pandemic. Thank God for Susan. I know you were so lonely. Thank goodness for the phone. John and I loved helping you out with different projects. We were looking forward to driving you to your cottage again this year. We have so many happy times in our memory book. I'm grateful for you being my maid of honor. Mostly I'm grateful for our fifty year friendship. God bless you. God bless Jim and his family. A great son.

“ Barbara was amazing for as long as I can remember her from childhood summers on Lake Michigan. My family knew her and the family through the Messingslagers who lived near them on Lake Michigan. We not only rented their cottage when my sister and I were babies, but we also rented it just a few years ago with our own kids. Barbara remained sharp, vibrant, busy, talented, and always lovely; we were always amazed at how active she was and how she continued to travel back and forth to the Lake.

We were so blessed to know her for all these years. Our deepest sympathies to her children and grandchildren.

“ We moved into the neighborhood 8 years ago. Barbara was one of the first people to greet us. We fell in love with her instantly. She always enjoyed calling and sharing stories with us. She delighted in attending our annual Christmas Party. Our dear friend, you will be missed greatly. Our tears still have not dried up. We love you.

“ I was blessed to have Barb as my mother in law for the past 45 years. She welcomed me into the family with open arms and we grew to be not only friends but after my own mother passed away, Barb filled the void. I will miss her smile, her laughter and her love. Rest in peace

“ I am a neighbor with a home in court two. My bedroom window looks out to Barbara’s bedroom window in court three and I always looked for her bedroom light to shine around 10;00 pm. I would tease her, if she stayed up later, telling her that she was missing her “beauty sleep”.

I will miss chatting with her on the phone (both in Novi and while we were at our respective northern cottages).

She was a wonderfully good natured and caring lady and adored by many.
