“ I first got to know Heather through our community center. She wanted to serve God, but being newly pregnant with Jax, she couldn't lift anything heavy. We set her up with a chair and a cart, and she served by checking expiration dates on hundreds of boxes of food. What a testimony Rest with Jesus sweet servant and sister in Christ. Sorry for your loss Wes. Continued prayers for you all

“ Heather was a dear friend and amazing woman of faith. I miss her terribly and pray for her family. She and I met as breast cancer survivors and through our journey together she showed me how important a dedicated life of the Lord will reward us tenfold. She was my inspiration and soul sister. I will love and miss her forever!

“ My heart aches for Heather's family. The first time we met was at our Women of Hope meeting at my church in Melbourne, Fl. She was fighting cancer at that time, but what an amazing young woman! Her fight and her trust in the Lord was strong, and grew stronger as time passed. Her dream was to marry and have children. As you all know the story, she did just that, God answered her prayers. Another time we met in the doctor's office, she was in remission and I was in my second battle with cancer. She told me if she ever got cancer again, she would fight it. And she did. She was our angel on this earth, and now she I see an angel in heaven for an eternity. She will always exist in our hearts.

“ I met Heather as her physical therapist during her first fight with cancer and we became friends immediately as we talked about Jesus during treatment. She began scheduling her appointments at the end of the day so we could stay and talk afterwards as long as we wanted. She was beautiful, amazing, full of love for the Lord and such a great friend. We have stayed in touch even after she moved and I am so thankful for the time we had as friends. I will miss her so much but know she is free of pain and sickness and I will see her again!

“ Dear Copley and McCullough Family and Friends,
We were so saddened to hear of the passing of Heather. Sympathetic words cannot be found at this time to express just how very sorry we are for all of you to lose such a sweet and loving person as Heather.
We will always remember when we joined Bill, Kim, Jason, & Heather at Cedar Lake, MI and their trip to our camp in Canada. We will always remember how excited Heather was just before she went off to basic training in the Air Force. We were blessed to be able to see Heather while she was living in Melbourne, Florida. We will cherish the annual Christmas card photos of her and her beautiful family with Wes and Jackson. May God give her peace, and may he provide all of us with comfort and understanding of his will.
Deepest condolences from your Friends in Canada and Michigan, John, Kathy, Chelsea, and Brendan Adair.
