“ I don't know how to start, and I may be a little late...
She was always Grandma to me. My best memories are those from trips up north. Iced tea; Vernors floats. Her making breakfast in the mornings. Uno card games and swimming at the lake. Yes she was strict at times, but she had the biggest heart. As I grew older I remember thinking what a strong woman she is. And I admired that very much. You always knew that she loved you no matter what. In the last few years when I visited her we would talk about life. She wanted to know everything about my life and always told me how proud she was of me. She always made me feel special. Those summer days at Ford Lake are my favorite. For me, she will always be there...sitting on that white bench by the water. That is how I will remember her

“ I'll always remember you and loved listening to your stories I remember sitting in your room talking because you hated being alone and talking about your birds

“ Grandmothers are such special people, and I'm so glad she was mine. There are so many memories that I will cherish, and I'm glad we can come together to celebrate her remarkable life. I remember playing Uno & Monopoly with her up north, and how she would never let me leave the game early. I remember many trips up north and making her countless glasses of iced tea and playing miniature golf. Also visiting her in FL, taking her grocery shopping and out to lunch. I remember her waking me up as a teenager at 9am and telling me I was sleeping too late. I remember going out to dinner at the Ram's Horn, The Red Apple and Leon's after school. I remember her holding my first two babies. She certainly packed a lot of life into almost ninety-one years and I will miss her.

“ Butter Pecan ice cream brings back several memories. I can remember going to Guernsey Farms Dairy in Novi for dinner with my grandmother. The broasted chicken was always on the menu. It was her favorite meal. Even more so was the always welcomed ice cream afterwards. Butter Pecan of corse. Also a favorite. At times my grandmother would exhibit a rather tough and strong willed attitude; however, a sort of grandmotherly love never failed to shine through. If you asked her how she was doing here reply was always "very good" even if it may not have been always true. Grandma would always ask if I had a girlfriend. My answer was typically no. She would often respond by saying "that's good, girls are trouble. Stay away from them." These are just a few of the many memories of my grandmother that I hold close to my heart.

“ My mom was pretty strict with us kids, but she was also a push over. When she got really mad at us, she would use our first and middle names. When she did that, we knew we were in big trouble. She left a big hole in our hearts with her passing.

“ Eileen is my sister. When my brother & I were little guys and our mom wanted us rounded up for dinner Eileen had the "rounder up" assignment. Eileen was always very good at that assignment. I will miss her.
