“ Today we laid my Grandma Kovacs to rest. We said goodbye to such a sweet, kind and loving woman. She always made everyone feel important and loved when she was around. She had 4 children, 7 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren and always remembered everyone's birthdays and special moments, I will always love and cherish my “Happy Birthday Tiffy!” calls & voicemails. Her voice instantly brought a smile to your face and love in your heart. She was such a funny and fiery woman. Her humor and sass was something I always think of and admired about her so much. She was known for her cooking for a reason. Her meals were something I'd look so forward to growing up because they were truly magical. That's something I will always miss so much not just because of the unreal food but the company that came with it. Everyday I will have a bit of her with me when I'm in the kitchen. My Aunt Debbie was kind enough to give me her favorite knife, apron and serving spoon I've used ever since I was a child. I'll be forever grateful for these incredible gifts. Grandma looked so peaceful and beautiful today. She was surrounded by the ones who truly loved her so much and I know she could feel that love from beyond. I'm praying for my family to heal and feeling so grateful for the years I had with such an inspiring woman. Thank you Grandma and I love you so much

“ where would I be without your love? You taught me how to care for others, how to cook, how to laugh, how to cry and how to be forgiving. Caring for you with the help of Terri, Tony, Karen and Rosie has been a beautiful adventure as we all loved you as much as you loved us. I can't really describe here how much you influenced my life but I truly admired you and thank you from the bottom of my heart, I was blessed. My heart aches in your absence, please send us comfort and peace as you now rest without pain and worry. You are home.

“ Grandma Kovacs to me, “GG” to my kids was the most thoughtful and selfless person I’ve ever met. In her selfless ways she contributed to expanded waistlines for many of us. I’ll always remember holidays, Sunday dinners, and her happy birthday calls. (She never forgot my birthday) I remember some of the best meals I’ve ever had at Grandma’s house, Marge could COOK! Thankfully she has passed down some her best recipes to us. (Stuffed Cabbage anyone?)

I’m very grateful to have had such a special person in my life for so long.

We are going to miss you so much GG, but you will always be on our minds.

Love,

Craig, Erin, Dylan, and Addison.

“ Grandma Kovacs to me, GG to my kids, we were so fortunate to have such a loving leader in our family. Grandma truly put everyone else before herself and fattened plenty of us up in the process! I will always remember Sunday dinners, holidays, and some of the best meals I’ve ever had at Grandmas. Luckily for our family she has passed down some of her greatest recipes. (stuffed cabbage anyone!?) There wasn’t a more thoughtful and loving person than Grandma Kovacs. I feel so lucky to have had a grandma like her for so long. We are going to miss you so much GG, love Craig, Erin, Dylan, and Addison.

“ Dear Mom,
My life will never be the same without you. You have made me the strongest person I can be. It was the most rewarding thing ever to be there with you in your last days. The stories and memories that I've read on this tribute have just enforced every good and beautiful thing I have always known about you. The pictures that I have on my phone I can't post because I know you will come haunt me for that. Most of my pictures are in storage and I can't get to them to share with everyone. May you rest in peace mom until I see you again.
LOVE YOUR DAUGHTER
Terri

“ Margaret's Table;
For the past 35 years, I've countless memories at Margaret's Table. She always welcomed me with a big smile and open arms. Thru the years, we had countless meals, holidays, and birthdays. We played hours of Yahtzee and laughed till our sides hurt. At her table, we had many deep conversations, cups of coffee and amazing desserts. With all this being said, the most important will be, the fact, that while at her table, I knew she loved me unconditionally, and I was always welcome. She had a heart of gold and the best Mother-in-law (MoM) a gal could ask for. I will always cherish these memories, I just hope that she knew how much I LOVED AND APPRECIATED my spot at her table. RIP Beautiful Lady!

“ For 35 years, i had a place at Margaret's Table. All these years she shared amazing food, laughs, and tears. We played hours of Yatzee and cups of coffee and amazing sweets. After all these years and all these memories at her table, the most dear memory, is that I knew I was always welcome, and loved by her and for that I'm eternally grateful and hope she always knows, how much I LOVED MY SPOT AT HER TABLE. RIP MOM

“ Her Smile

Though her smile is gone forever
and her hand I cannot touch
I still have so many memories
Of the one I loved so much.
Her memory is now my keepsake
Which with I'll never part.
God has her in her keeping
I have her in my heart.
Sadly missed, but never forgotten.

“ I was that grandkid that when i came over to help my dad with yard work every week (yes, I was a push broom pro by 10 yrs old) or Sunday dinner on the weekend, I was asking to stay the night. I loved everything from Grandpa in his gray robe, pulling down the wintergreen mints he hid atop the fridge to share with me as we danced to Michael Jackson in the living room to a grandma that would churn homemade vanilla bean ice cream for me and let me help her prepare the feasts we ate as a family on Sundays.

She always took me to the park down the street from her and never rushed me home. She would take me to the store with her and wed laugh as she pulled her Cadillac into the garage at the tennis ball contraption grandpa made for her to know she pulled in far enough.

She had me peeling mushrooms for our salads, scoring tomatoes, and peeling them after they'd sat in their ice bath to can. I loved sitting on the couch next to her late at night as she wrote down the lottery numbers. I'd wake up the next morning, sit on her rocking chair- as she made the best scrambled eggs with bacon in them I'd ever had & admire her perfect handwriting. I used to doodle next to her numbers to try to write them like her.

You know, she used to pick me up from Ladywood when I attended high school there. She'd ask me "shellbell, are you hungry?" I'd of course tell her I was and I'll never forget the day I sat down at the table to eat and she brought me a sandwich made with the bologna with green olives in it, lettuce, and mayonnaise. I remember looking at that sandwich thinking "oh Lorr, this is a sandwich from my nightmares." But I took a bite because she made it for me and I'll be damned, it was the best sandwich I'd ever had!! Only a woman like Grandma Kovacs can make olive bologna taste that good - LOL! I actually asked for that sandwich everyday after school from then on...

I'll forever remember her sitting on my couch holding my son for the first time... she came in and said "Shelly, you finally got that boy... give me him!" she was so happy and looked at him so admiringly as she said "oh Shell, he's beauuuutiful. I love his name. You know, grandpas middle name was Nicholas and I always loved that name. He's perfect"

Over this last summer, she made goulash for us after a day at the pool. You know something, my kids have had me making goulash ever since and every time they go "it's good, but it's not grandmas Kovacs" the last time I came over she had made us goulash again. Only this time, I was so hellbent on figuring out what was so different about hers that she caught me going through her trash trying to figure out her secret ingredient LOL!!! Never the less, I still have no idea what it was...

I loved my Grandma Kovacs and I'll forever cherish the memories I have with her... for there are too many to mention here and they are so great. I will miss her everyday, from her contagious laugh to her southern drawl. My sweet Grandma, may she Rest In Peace.
