Theo Jerry German

November 20, 2021- January 2, 2022

Beloved son of Matthew and Angela.

Loving grandson of Beate and Richard (Cathy) Michael, Terri and Jerry German.

Dear nephew of Sara (Greg), Kyle (Sarah) and Jessica (Carlo).

Sweet cousin of Landen, Luke, Hunter and Peter.

He will also be missed by his furry siblings Lola and Lily

Our beloved miracle, baby boy, bubba, munchkin, hungry little caterpillar, and stinkasaurus. Theo had the fight of a lion in such a precious, perfect body and soul. His big, beautiful eyes could melt your heart in an instant and never made you guess how he was feeling. He loved story time before bed and snuggles with mama and daddy. May he never doubt the love that surrounded him by every single person he touched in person and in spirit during his short life here. We are comforted knowing he will be cradled by all of those waiting to love him in heaven.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made in Theo's honor to The Roman James Foundation www.romanjames.org or the Tears Foundation. www.thetearsfoundation.org

A visitation for Theo will be held on January 8th 2022, beginning at 11am until time of service at 2pm all at The O'Brien/Sullivan Funeral Home.

“ I was just thinking Theo. A sweet but tough boy that I called "Thor" - a testament to his strength and resilience. Miss him

“ It was an honor to care for Theo and to meet your lovely family. I'm unfortunately unable to come on Saturday as I will be working, but my love and thoughts will be with you all. I will always remember your beautiful boy.

“ It was an honor to care for Theo. The staff at Beaumont were all humbled to bear witness to the family love that surrounded him and the strength of his parents as they advocated for him every day. Theo's life changed our world for the better and we will never forget him.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I hope that the memories of the time you were able to spend with Theo will help you through this very sad time. Theo was so lucky to have such wonderful and loving parents who were always there to advocate for him and comfort him.
It was a pleasure and honor to care for him and to get to know you both.

“ Theo - words cannot express the sadness that surrounds the loss of such a sweet soul. It is easy to be angry because we are reminded how cruel life can be but we cannot allow the darkness of that anger to dim the light that was your life. Though your time on earth was short you live on in our hearts. I cherish every minute I was able to spend with you and was embraced by the love of your parents. I watched them put aside their own grief and sadness to comfort you and read you stories. No parents could love a child more than your mama and daddy. You came into our lives on Saturday and filled us with joy and love. Sadly you left us on a Sunday "the day you became a beautiful butterfly."

Angie and Matt - Theo was blessed with the best parents in the world. I wish I could tell you it will be alright but we know that it will not. A parent's duty is to protect their children from pain and suffering and you did that for Theo. I only wish I could do that for you right now. We will always have a hole in our hearts. A hole created by an unspeakable loss. A hole that will be filled when we all meet again. We love you so very much.
